Ancestors

By Kamau Brathwaite

New Directions. Paperback. Condition: New. 544 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.9in. The long-awaited single volume of Kamau Brathwaite's landmark trilogy--Mother Poem, Sun Poem, and XSelf-- now completely revised, expanded, and reinvented by the author. Ancestors is a startling reinvention of one of the most important long poems of our hemisphere. The original three volumes, Mother Poem, Sun Poem, and XSelf (1977, 1982, and 1987, Oxford University Press), widely recognized as crucial to Kamau Brathwaite's work, have long been unavailable in the US. Ancestors, which completely revises the trilogy, rediscovers Barbados -- the place, its history and ethos -- as well as the poet's family and childhood. With its Video Sycorax typographic inventions and linguistic play, Ancestors liberates both the language and the new-Caliban vision of the poet. In its new and more experimental form the trilogy embodies the recapture (what the poet has called the intercovery) of Brathwaite's AfricanCaribbean ancestry as a possession of power and renewal, even as it plumbs the deep tonalities of enslavement, oppression, and colonial dispossession. This item ships from multiple locations. Your book may arrive from Roseburg, OR, La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
