Dog Ear Publishing, United States, 2012. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. Every successful person started with a dream. In most if not all cases success was never achieved if they never tried. Success was never reached without taking risks. After severity, sufferation trial and error led to a formula of sweet reward. Success would never be achieved if the first step was never made. Rejection, poverty and disappointment were the elements of shackle for most of the early years of Joseph's life. The will to survive and the strong religious conviction gave hope and resilience. Determination was the key to defy the odds, and to succeed. He has given you a peek in to his personal testimony that despite circumstance strong belief in the true and living God will allow any fete to be achieved. Born Joseph Somers a seed sewn in the Jamaican soil that bore fruit that spread to the world and germinated into permanent trees. Through divine inspiration and intervention saw over 5000 souls baptized into the Christian church and still counting. May this personal testimony allow you to break free from whatever shackles that bind.
