Starting with the craft crash in Ezekiel changing the genetics and lives of the aboriginals in Glass Planet 1. This premise is explored here in fiction, in the series that started with The Glass Planet: The clear Beings, when the God Zapheth crash-lands on the young planet, and in trying to survive his off-world ordeal, he changes the culture and the future of this emerging civilization. Gabriel s Objective continues where The Clear Beings left off, and is spoken largely from the point of veiw of the extra terrestrials, Gabriel and others. With the death of the old God and his Queen Shabbeth, leaving a young culture wondering where to turn. Their children set out on a quest to discover their father s secrets and to learn how to survive with the changes his alien presence wrought.We also call this the Exodus in the bible, and this story is retold here from the point of view of Moses wife, Zaphora. And the Angel Gabriel is not what he seems either!.
