Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, 2015. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Hank Green's young son, Bobby, is trapped in a cave beneath a water-drenched swamp of the Chesapeake Bay. Even worse, a powerful Easter Sunday storm is barreling down. As Hank rushes to join the team of experienced local firemen and friends who will try to rescue his son, he feels once again his own numbing personal terror. He is overcome by a lifelong claustrophobic fear of entering closed spaces like a cave, a phobia he inherited from his immigrant father. He knows that if the others lose hope and fail, he will go on alone and risk his life to save his child, but he must find a way to conquer his weakness. Easter Sunday is the latest of this acclaimed Chesapeake series by Thomas Hollyday. The author's unique voice once again gives us an exciting read about the people, their beliefs and legends, and the grasping mud and black water wetlands of this mysterious American region. -.
