END OF THE LINE: THE RISE AND COMING FALL OF THE GLOBAL CORPORATION

Crown Business. Paperback. Condition: New. 320 pages. Dimensions: 8.0in. x 5.3in. x 0.8in. In September 1999, an earthquake devastated much of Taiwan, toppling buildings, knocking out electricity, and killing 2,500 people. Within days, factories as far away as California and Texas began to close. Cut off from their supplies of semiconductor chips, companies like Dell and Hewlett-Packard began to shutter assembly lines and send workers home. A disaster that only a decade earlier would have been mainly local in nature...

Reviews

This publication can be well worth a study, and far better than other. Better then never, though i am quite late in start reading this one. Its been printed in an exceedingly simple way and it is only soon after i finished reading through this book in which really transformed me, alter the way in my opinion.
