Well, one could suspect that it was about music, but that would be only partially correct. Or about prostitution since the story is laced with Sophia and Aunt Clara, two ladies that are in the business? Well, not so again. Perhaps What shouldn't be the question anyway. Perhaps who is the question we should explore? Who are the characters that bring our story to life? Romance? Absolutely! Love? You betcha. Hmm! We will explore their lives and the less than simple threads that bind them in a world that so often appears simply black and white. We will not be just spectators from our comfortable armchairs, but drawn to know them in very special ways. Ways...
