When Kim, a certified ghetto dime piece moved her son Santana from the gritty streets of Northwest, B. C. to Prince Georges County Maryland, she hoped that the change of environment would deter Santana from the allurements of the fast life she tried so desperately to leave behind. Kim soon came to realize that the Kentland neighborhood they moved into was just as dangerous, and crime infested, as B. C. Santana, AKA Lil Suavey, along with his best friend Lil Chills, decided to step their game up from being petty car thieves, to entering the more lucrative drug trade. Under the tutelage of the big homie K. B. , the two youngins jumped into the game head first, and began stacking paper faster than they knew what to do with it. The only problem was, the block they set up shop on was already being run by notorious brothers Bice and Wayne Wayne, who didnt take kindly to any form of competition. Then theres Krud Nasty, a neighborhood tyrant who believed Suavey was nothing more than a pretty boy chump, who didnt deserve his street success and planned to take Suavey out at all cost. Before Suave and Chills knew it, along with their success, came beef raging on all fronts. With every enemy they annihilate, another seems to take its place. What these two youngins were never told in the beginning, was that sometimes the consequences for Living Fast... is Dying Young. This item ships from La Vergne, TN. Paperback.
