The night sky dims on a fall early winter night, and you find yourself directly in a nightmare come true. The realization of an unbelievable reality will soon be handed to you. Have you ever wondered about the area you live in, if it's safe to come outside? That's exactly the way I felt living in Central California. The fact of the matter is Fresno County is extremely, ridiculously haunted to put it lightly. To witness a perfectly looking innocent old lady to go and transform herself into a mystical monster demon will never be forgotten. This creature disguised and approached and shortly revealed herself as a spirit woman we define as a witch, besides her look of death, her frightening vicious screen, letter from the dead, and happening on the three hundredth anniversary of Salem. Think how I felt as I saw her transform and put on a paranormal circus act. There's a dimension few have witnessed, and I am one. There's a spirit world of power and magic and characters that are presumably believed to be fiction. If you're a skeptic about these type of stories, then after you're done with my book, you're a believer. The unimaginable reality of a human woman spirit of great threatening danger reveals herself as real. Read my true haunting story, and take yourself into my eyes as she becomes an unbelievable spirit of reality and instant danger. The Mouth Man trolls and UFOs don't even have any comparable scenario of intimate danger as the one I saw. Karma is reality; witches are real.
