Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 0.6in.A seven-year old grandson lost his beloved grandfather to an unexpected and sudden heart attack. Before the family visitation concluded, the grandson took one last look at his grandfather lying dead and motionless in the casket. He stood beside the casket with both arms and elbows resting on the edge of the casket, his face positioned only inches from his grandfathers. Knowing the casket would soon be closed and that he would never see his grandfather again in this life, he stood gazing intently at his grandfather for well over five minutes, attempting to forever etch his features into his memory. As he walked away, tears streamed down his cheeks. He wanted to know where his grandfather was and would he ever see him again. These are the same thoughts everyone entertains when precious loved ones pass from this life. Death ends life with such suddenness and finality. It is a mystery that haunts the soul of mortal man. It is as perplexing to the learned philosopher as it is the aborigine in the deepest jungle. Billy Powell wrote Butterflies in Heaven to provide a better understanding of what lies ahead in the world beyond for both the living and the dead in the hope this knowledge would remove the sting of death and draw the reader toward a closer walk with God. Butterflies in Heaven, grounded in scripture, is an in-depth, entertaining, and informative source on life after death a virtual textbook (and roadmap) on what lies beyond the grave. Does the soul sleep after death Will God resurrect the dead Will we see our precious departed loved ones again Book includes heartwarming love stories of husbands and wives,...
