SIGNING OFF ON THE STATE

Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: VDM Verlag Dr. Müller | Privileging histories - constructing identity | Signing off on the State is an account of signifying and representational practices that privilege particular histories in Australia to ensure that select values forming and informing national identity are mediated. It critiques an official rhetoric that attempts to construct a stainless and heroic national narrative within Australia's military history. It can be read as a contextual analysis between Allering's visual art practice, the state...
