Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2016. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Two decades ago a great deafening silence entered the world. Since then, the winds have mysteriously vanished. And with the disappearing of the wind, the magic held by the once mighty, immortal Sky Whisperers was shattered. Now only the small powers are left to Xenthia and her people, helping to sustain life--what little remains. For the world of Lorian is dying. All Nemsas has ever known is a world without wind. Strangely, the winds stayed away around the day of her birth, twenty five years ago, setting off a chain of disastrous events including a fatal sickness. And for that the girl is both tormented and shunned. Unaware of her involvement in this, she leads a small, miserable life in a mountain village, close to where she was found as a baby. She wants nothing more than to find out to why there is no wind. And why the Gods have seemingly forgotten about them. That tiny spark starts a fury of change when one day Nemsas meets alluring Xenthia--a mystifying Sky Whisperer--and it becomes clear that Nemsas path lies far above all she is familiar with. Beyond her village and the Lower Sky, past the red, dusty mountains even, and up to the unknown lands of the Upper Sky Dome to the realm of the Sky Whisperers. But, even with her true heritage revealed, how can crippled and one-eyed Nemsas destiny be linked with that of the much older, immortal Sky Whisperer she grows fonder of by the day? What is expected of her? More so--how can frail Nemsas ever hope to stand up against the supremacy of a vengeful, ambitious Sun Whisperer? Will the courage...
