By WEP. West End Producer

NICK HERN BOOKS, United Kingdom, 2018. Paperback.
Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book. Just when you thought it was safe to go back in the West End. West End Producer, the masked man of theatreland and author of the definitive guide to acting*, returns with the ultimate guide to the theatregoing experience - for anyone who s ever been to the theatre, or who thinks they might like to try it one day. As the godfather of theatre producers, with an enviable track-record in uncovering new talent (via his talent competitions Search for a Twitter Star and Search for a Twitter Composer) and a regular column in The Stage newspaper, WEP is a cult figure in London s theatre scene, frequently attending press nights with his Jean Valjean teddy by his side. Now he s ready to share his industry secrets once again, this time coming to the aid of audience members everywhere as they embark on the most perilous quest of all: going to the theatre. Packed with insider know-how and naughty anecdotes, this book will tell you how to make your West End adventure as smooth as Craig Revel Horwood s nose, including tips and advice...
