Forgotten Books. Paperback. Condition: New. This item is printed on demand. 676 pages. Dimensions: 9.0in. x 6.0in. x 1.4in. Excerpt from General History of the Christian Religion and Church, Vol. 3: From the German of Dr. Augustus Neander In presenting to the public this third volume of my Church History, I beg leave to remark that it would have given me great pleasure if I had found it possible to conclude in this volume my account of the image-controversy; but in considering the immense mass of the materials, I have thought best to reserve the second part of this controversy for the next succeeding period, where it chronologically belongs. The thread of events which in this period served to prepare the way for the schism betwixt the Greek and the Latin church, I shall take up again in the genetic exposition of this controversy in the following period. Through the obliging assistance of my friend Dr. Petermann, whose praiseworthy efforts have opened the way for establishing among us a chair of Armenian literature, I have been enabled here and there to avail myself of Armenian sources of information hitherto unexplored. May the indefatigable labors of this estimable man, in a field which promises so rich a harvest, meet with the acknowledgment and the patronage they so eminently deserve. God be thanked that he has enabled me to complete this new and important section of the present work, and to approach the flourishing period of the middle ages. I cannot forbear expressing my hearty acknowledgments to Councillor Reuss of Göttingen, and to Mr. Kopitar, keeper of the Imperial library in Vienna for the kind assistance they have rendered me on several points of literary inquiry. Mr. Kopitar has shown the distinguished kindness of sending me from his private library the Greek work mentioned...
