

Lady Disguised (Paperback)

By Jane Charles

Createspace Independent Publishing Platform, United States, 2014. Paperback. Condition: New. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand . Mr. Sebastian Stanwick never intended to marry. It was bad enough that his father gambled away everything they owned and then drank himself to death, leaving his mother broken until she could not go on. But the death of his good friend at the hand of the man's wife only solidifies Stanwick's decision to remain a bachelor. Women were simply unpredictable and unstable if not taken care of properly. Helene Mirabelle wants few things in life. One, is to perform on the stage, and the other, is to be out from under the roof of her overbearing new family: Lord Bentley and the Trent brothers. Since her mother's recent passing, Helene's desire to return to Milan and the stage has only grown. A husband could never fit into the plans because no decent man would take an actress as a wife. One fateful night leaves Helene questioning if being an actress is the only thing she wants, while Stanwick begins to wonder whether all women are truly prone to madness and if they are, he may...
