Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****. 100 years after the most infamous shipwreck in history, imagine: What If Titanic Didn t Sink? Perhaps no disaster in history has endured the scrutiny reserved for the sinking of the RMS Titanic on her maiden voyage on April 15, 1912. Yet nearly a century after the disaster, there is perhaps one question that remains unanswered about the legendary British steamship: What if Titanic didn t sink and the rich and poor she carried had survived that terrible night? Titanic was a marvel of luxury and innovation. But it was the names on her passenger list that said it all. Twenty years later, Titanic has enjoyed a successful career and the privileged who sailed on her maiden voyage have become the world s wealthiest financiers and industrialists. All have one thing in common: the power to influence history. A new President, himself a Titanic survivor, is slowly leading the United States out of economic depression but international hostilities are building again...
